Financial Wellness Seminars for Companies Throughout Michigan

Empower your employees to make informed financial decisions.

Studies show that employees who have less stress in their personal lives are happier, more efficient, and more likely to produce quality work. When critical members of your staff are experiencing financial difficulties, it can put a strain on your entire organization. That is where we can help.

We Offer Customized Financial Wellness Education Programs Tailored to Your Organization

Our CORE Wealth Strategist can host comprehensive educational financial seminars for all of your company's employees, or a selection of key staff members, to help them better prepare for critical financial decision. These seminars are designed specifically for your organization, and can play a key role in retaining and motivating staff, as well as giving them a clear path towards achieving their financial needs, wants, and desires.

Education is at the CORE of Our Philosophy

At CORE Financial, we believe education is at the center of successful, long-term financial planning, and security. If you would like more information on our educational programs, or to schedule a seminar at your company, please give us a call us today at (888) 600-1112.
